Personal statement

My interest in research has let me develop problem solving skills and new ways to challenge myself. I am passionate about uplifting others as well as learning and growing and always look to bring this out in my professional life. My experience as a fundraiser has made me strive to further develop passion, communication and relationship building. I take great pride in research and use this skill to broaden my understanding of the different industries of my interest. My current experience as an outreach specialist has helped me broaden my research skills when doing assessments and research to identify community requirements for the projects i have worked with.

Goals

My goals are to learn more and sharpen my skills with criminology and psychology. I want to get to see what else is out there besides what I already know while also building my network with more work experience related to my field of study, focusing on being able to build and maintain relationships be a good team player and commit to a job. I want to find new challenges that can help me in now and build my career further.
